NEW APPLICATIONS FOR COMMUNITY EVENTS

- A Total of 20 Applications were received (see attached)
- All groups and activities who previously used the Community Center must re-submit their applications for usage.
- Andy asked for a vote to approve all 20 applications, a discussion of opening the Community Center will follow.
- A vote was taken 2 yes 2 no (Linda Bondeson & Susan Superak), Andy voted yes to break the tie.

DISCUSS RE-OPEING OF THE COMMUNITY CENTER

- Susan Superak stated that she felt that the Community Center should not be open at this time. She stated that the Covid 19 cases are still increasing everyday and felt that we should wait and re discuss. She suggested that perhaps groups could use the Tiki Hut or tables outside as we are now getting into our nice weather.

- Linda Bondeson stated that she agreed with Sue S., she stated that she did not want to be responsible for anyone getting Covid from being in the center. She stated that we have already lost one of our own and did not feel we should open the center at this time. Need to re discuss later.
- Donna Stogsdill agreed with both Sue and Linda and stated that she did not feel it was a good idea to let upwards of 60 people to use the center.
- Sam Besase stated that all precautions would be taken, i.e. temperature taking, wearing masks, etc.

VISITOR INPUT

- Jack Horner stated that Neighborhood Watch did not want to use the center until Feb. 2021. Jack stated that he had sent a new application to the Activities Committee but had not heard back.
- Andy suggested that Jack resubmit application to Claudette for processing. Jack did want a new date and time for his meeting.
- Andy explained that we were only meeting every other month because there really was no applications being received, however, we will begin meeting once a month.
- Diane McGrath wants her sewing group back on the schedule. She will submit an application to Claudette.
- Gwen Grace (Women's Club) wanted to make sure that the Women's club got back on the schedule and every consideration be given to them as they are a 5013C

- NEW BUSINESS

- Andy asked for a moment of silence for George Burger who passed away on Friday, all remained silent.

- OLD BUSINESS
